

21st Century Community Learning Center

Resources/Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Outcomes	Impact
Appropriate physical space Program content for: academics, project-based learning, health, nutrition, career, college, music, arts Qualified & motivating staff "Fun"	Homework, tutoring, test prep College & career prep Rap sessions Sports Community Service Staff development Youth & Parent-Community Councils	Attendance, paying attention Hours spent according to content plan Homework done Resumes College apps.	Self-confidence & academic aspirations Healthy attitudes & behaviors Adult computer skills Participants & family see value in program	Improve school grades, test scores, teacher reports Improve school attendance Reduce in-school behavior problems Positive attitudes and motivation re: academics, health, community

Definitions

- Activities and Outputs are tightly linked. Outputs are directly observable from the activities themselves, usually occurring at the same time.
- Outcomes occur during the period and within the scope of the program.
- Impacts may or may not be observable within the scope or timeframe of the program. If not, then there must exist other evidence linking the Outcomes to the Impacts.